Woman's Missionary Institute Here.

The W. F. M. S., of the St. Johnsbury district held their 19th annual meeting at Orleans May 21st, afternoon and evening. Mrs. Smithers, 1st vice-president, was in charge. Mrs. Dickens read the 2d Psalm and the chairman offered prayer. Mrs. Maud Hunt had charge of the music. Mrs. A. E. Ordway in well chosen words extended a welcome to the visiting delegates. A report was given by the secretary, Mr. Staples of Lyndon, also from the treasurer, Mrs. Lowe of St. Johnsbury, and by representatives of the auxiliaries present. Committees on nominations, resolutions and the press were appointed. Words of greeting were spoken by Rev. C. W. Kelley of Newbury, Rev. O. J. Anderson of Derby and Miss J. O. Robinson, representing the Woman's Home Missionary society. Mrs. A. G. Barber of Reading, Mass., gave an interesting and stirring address on the work of the society, emphasizing the coming Jubilee. A pleasing feature of the session was the children's hour in charge of Mrs. J. W. Brennan, assisted by Mrs. Kinney and Mrs. Dickens. Twenty girls dressed in white, wearing blue sashes on which were the letters K. H. in gilt, marched into the church, the leaders carrying a banner on which were the words, "King's Heralds," and taking their stand within the altar, sang with fine effect, "Heralds of the King." Eleanor Lyon recited, "Two Little Babies," and Doris Dickens sang, "Somebody Needs You," after which Mrs. Barber told the children some very entertaining missionary stories. Rev. G. L. Wells closed the session with prayer. At 7.30 devotions were conducted by the pastor, the choir sang two selections and Mrs. Dickens sang, "O'ne Sweetly Solem Thought," and Mr. and Mrs. Kinney sang a duet. Mrs. Barber gave an address on Mohammedism, which was heard with close attention. She has traveled widely, and is a woman of convictions, and a forceful speaker. Mrs. C. C. Willey was chosen as Jubilee supervisor for the district. Mrs. Staples reported for the committee on resolutions. The ladies of the auxiliary wish to extend thanks to Hiram Allen, Harry Dickens and Mrs. C. C. Willey for the use of their autos. The following officers were elected for the coming year. President, Mrs. G. A. Martin of St. Johnsbury; 1st vice-president, Mrs. W. S. Smithers, Orleans; 2d vice-president, Mrs. S. D. Atwood, St. Johnsbury; 3d vice-president, Mrs. Fred Smith, Lyndonville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Nellie Farnum, Lyndonville; recording secretary, Mrs. Ellen A. Staples, Lyndon; treasurer, Mrs. R. F. Lowe St. Johnsbury; superintendent young people's work, Mrs. H. E. Jenkins, Lyndonville; superintendent children's work, Mrs. O. J. Anderson, Derby.

Congregational Church Notes

The mid-week service will be held in the vestry tonight at 7.30. The topic, "Our Country's Heroes," is especially appropriate for this week, and doubtless many will join in considering it. Morning worship Sunday will be omitted in the church, but we shall join in the union Memorial Sunday service held in the Methodist church at the usual hour. The music will be furnished by our choir and the sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Smithers in accordance with the plan of alternating which has been the habit for many years.

The Sunday school will come together as soon as possible after the close of the service in the Methodist church. It will meet in the vestry on account of the work being done to the floor of the church. Let us meet as promptly as we can.

The Junior Endeavor society will meet in the vestry Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will probably be the last devotional meeting of this society until after the summer recess. Mrs. Magoon expects to be present, and all the Juniors will want to be there to greet her.

The Sunday evening church service will be held in the vestry. This will be a somewhat informal service, but we hope to have it especially attractive and enjoyable. There will be a good hearty song service at the beginning and an appropriate and live theme. Do not miss this service unless you are positively obliged to do so.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Prayer service tonight at 7.30 o'clock. It should be spiritually profitable to be there.

Sunday services. Sermon by the pastor at 10.30 a. m., and 7.15 p. m. It is to be a union service in the morning in observance of Memorial day, to which all the people are invited. We should honor the men who made possible what we now enjoy. The music will be furnished by the Congregational choir. Bible school following this service to which all not attending elsewhere are invited. Junior League at three o'clock.

The evening meeting at 7.15 will be opened with a praise service, singing from the new books, after which the pastor will speak briefly on an appropriate theme.

The finance commission will hold a meeting in the vestry Thursday at 7.30 p. m.

Soap for Tender Skin

Most any old soap will clean but the real question is—what action does it have on the skin? Soap with free alkali in it cracks and roughens the skin. Such soap is to be avoided. There is safety and comfort for you in the soap we sell. Many dainty soaps to select from and none sold but what can be used on the most delicate and sensitive skin without fear of injurious results.
